Description:

This spectacular villa is a large private property located in an unrivaled position just a few steps away from the Aegean Sea. Situated in the area of Aleomandra it assures front-row views over the island of Delos and the spectacular sunsets as well as being conveniently located in comparison to Mykonos Town which is just a five-minute drive away. Its features include on the entrance level the kitchen, designed in a position that allows easy access to both the indoor and outdoor dining areas as well as the living and dining area. Up a flight of steps from the living room are two master bedrooms that enjoy great privacy. The double en-suite bedrooms open up onto a private terrace each and provide outstanding sea views. One guest bedroom is located on the ground floor, with access to the outdoors and bearing a different décor theme. The property also includes one guest studio, located by the pool, with independent access and good level of privacy.
